Essay:

Write an essay (no longer than one typed page). Please type and include it with the application submission.

Your topic, be thorough and inclusive in your response, addressing the essay question:

If you had one opportunity to tell the ROJ Traditional Scholarship Committee why investing in your education is an investment in the community you call home and in the vision of the donors who support the Richard O. Jacobson Education Program, what would you say?

Share the experiences that have shaped your character, the challenges you have overcome, the values that guide your decisions, and the goals you hope to achieve. Explain how receiving this scholarship would transform your educational journey by reducing financial barriers and creating opportunities that might otherwise be out of reach. Finally, describe how you plan to use your education, talents, and experiences to make a meaningful and lasting difference in your family, your community, and the lives of others
